The Quartermaster: Supporting Our Mission

The AMVETS Ladies Auxiliary Quartermaster plays an important role in supporting our organization by managing the sale and distribution of Auxiliary merchandise. This position helps ensure members have access to items that promote pride, unity, and our shared mission.

Beyond maintaining inventory and processing orders, the Quartermaster provides dependable service while helping represent the image and values of our Auxiliary. Every purchase supports our programs and strengthens the visibility of our organization.

The Quartermaster's dedication, organization, and commitment help keep our Auxiliary running smoothly while fostering a sense of belonging and pride among our members. Together, we continue to honor our veterans through service, teamwork, and leadership.
